

Nominations sought for great Ohioan award

The Capitol Square Review and Advisory Board and Capitol Square Foundation are seeking nominations for the 2017 class of “Great Ohioans.” The award celebrates Ohioans who have played a significant role in an event, or series of events, of lasting significance in world, American or Ohio history. Additional criteria include being born in Ohio or lived in Ohio for a minimum of five years. At least 25 years must have passed since the commemorated event, in which the nominee participated. This award is an opportunity to recognize Ohioans who have made an impact in a number of important areas. Click here for an explanation of the nomination process and nomination forms. Nomination deadline: Dec. 12.
