

Cathy Coleman appointed Scioto County Commissioner

Newly appointed Scioto County Commissioner Cathy Coleman will fill the unexpired term of her late husband, Doug Coleman, who passed away in Sept. At the time of his death, Doug was completing his first term and was running for reelection in the General Election. Cathy's name will appear on the ballot in Scioto County as a candidate for county commissioner.

A life-long resident of Scioto County, Cathy resides in West Portsmouth. After 42 years, she retired from Boone Coleman Construction where she managed finances and the office. Cathy was elected to the Washington-Nile Local School District Board of Education for two consecutive terms, and served as vice president during her last term.

As county commissioner, Cathy is committed to serving the residents, learning more about local issues, keeping the county financially stable and moving forward. Her motto is, "Good things come to those who wait; Great things come to those who work for it!"
